An introduction to percolation theory

Rahul Roy, Indian Statistical Institute, New Delhi

Abstract -- In these lectures we introduce three different models of percolation: (i) percolation on the integer lattice, (ii) oriented percolation and (iii) continuum percolation. We discuss the critical parameter of percolation in each of these models. In addition we show some distinguishing features of each of these models.